

Cash Drawings Held Every Saturday p.m.

A drawing every Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock with three cash prizes, was the decision of the Retail Merchants Committee at a meeting Friday afternoon. A short period of discussion preceded the decision but the change was unanimously agreed upon by those present.

The meeting was held at 3:00 p. m. Friday in the Chamber of Commerce office. Clay Cooper, chairman of the Retail Merchants Committee, presided.

Another major change made was in the amount to be given away. Now instead of the monthly purse of $250, there will be a weekly purse of $150. This will amount to $600 per month when there are four Saturdays and when there are five Saturdays, as in May, the monthly amount will be $750. It will also give a dozen people or more each month a cash prize.

Under the new arrangement of the drawings, the first prize will still be $100. The next two prizes will be $25 each, and the drawings are to be conducted from the bandstand on the square each Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The tickets for the weekly drawings will be picked up on Friday evening. The tickets collected by customers on the day the drawing is held will be good for the next week's drawing.

Since being resumed in March the drawings had been held once a month. This monthly drawing had been held on the last Saturday of each month and because of the long lapse of time between drawings people collected volumes of tickets. Another thing was that the drawings often slipped people's

Winners of Cash Listed as Weekly Drawings Begin

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson was the lucky person Saturday to draw the $100 first prize of the retail merchants' sponsored drawings. Saturday's drawings marked the end of the monthly drawings in which the total purse amounts to $250. Starting next Saturday the drawings will be held every week and the purse will be $150.

V. H. Harmon of Happy won the second prize of $50, and the four $25 prizes were won by Mrs. Vera A. Brown, A. B. Haynes, Jr., Mrs. Frank Brown, and Mrs. Wathan Watson.

Roland Black, new secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce, said next Saturday there would be receptacles for disposing of tickets after the drawing. When these tickets are thrown over the streets they give the business district an unsightly appearance. For this reason the public will be asked to please place next week's tickets in the receptacles provided for that purpose.

An announcement will be made prior to the drawing to point out the use of the receptacles, and another change in the drawing will be announced. If the final $25 prize is not won on the first draw it will be held over until the following Saturday, at which time the final prize will be increased to $50. Each Saturday that this prize is not won it will be increased on the following week by $25.

Registration of Vehicles Given

Bill Money, tax assessor and collector for Randall county, gave last year's total car and truck registrations at 7,592. When he gave out the figures early this week the tax collector said that already the county had registered a total of 9,166 vehicles this year.

This leaves a total of 1,644 vehicles to register during the remainder of the year to come up to last year's number. Workers at the tax office expect the 1953 total of registrations to outnumber those of 1952. The biggest portion of these additional registrations will come from the sale of new and used cars that have not been registered prior to the sale.

Jury Case Is Tried in Court

The case of F. V. Friemel vs. W. F. Bonds was tried in district court Monday and Tuesday. A jury returned a verdict for the defendant Tuesday. The case grew out of the possession of two cows.

Fine Is Penalty For Refusing Jury Summons

A fine of $100 and court cost has been assessed against a Randall County man for refusal to accept a registered letter. The fine is the result of a contempt of court charge as the letter was a summons for the man to appear on the petit jury in a special venire.

In refusing to accept the letter the man was cited for contempt of court. Judge Henry S. Bishop issued the citation in which various qualifications concerning future duty appeared.

One of the sore spots of the court system was described as being that of jury selection. Many of those called try to evade jury duty while in a few instances the summons is either ignored or refused. In the future those who ignore or refuse the summons may find the penalty growing more and more severe.

Official Mental Health Week Begins Monday

Fire sirens will be sounded Monday at noon to usher in the official "Mental Health Week." The week of May 3-9 has been designated by the U. S. Congress and Texas Governor Allan Shivers as the week to acquaint the public with mental health problems.

From New York will come the ringing of a bell forged from chains and shackles once used to restrain mental patients. One of the hospitals donating to this effort is at Rusk.

Primary purpose of the campaign is to acquaint the public with mental health problems. The campaign will also be out to raise a total of $148,796 in money to broaden the scope of mental health work on local, state, and national levels.

Contributions can be mailed to "Mental Health" in care of your local postmaster. R. L. Wheelock, Corsicana, is chairman of the drive. He said every attempt would be made to organize a campaign in each county and state.

Fred Scott Died This Morning

Fred A. Scott died this morning at 3 o'clock following a long illness. He had reached his 89th birthday.

No plans had been completed this morning for the funeral, awaiting arrival of relatives.

Mr. Scott has been living with his son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Scott. His wife had died on Dec. 12, 1940.

Attends Press Meet Of the President

Mrs. Clyde Warwick returned yesterday from Washington, D. C., where she attended the annual convention of DAR. She is Regent of the Esther McCroy Chapter of Amarillo.

While in Washington she attended the press conference of President Eisenhower and was a guest at the White House for a reception given by Mrs. Eisenhower to the delegates.

Miss Neelley and Mrs. James Brannen of Amarillo accompanied her on the trip.

Don't Stop 'Em Say the Readers

"Don't stop the editorials!" That is the verdict of too many readers. So we shall keep them coming week after week.

J. B. Elliston of Hereford: "If you stop writing editorials, you had just as well stop my paper." O. L. Coleman says: "I read them every week, and whether I agree, I enjoy them."

C. N. Cosby: "I appreciate your stand on the liquor business." He referred to the maximum fines being imposed on drunken drivers by local officers, and promised to give them a pat on the back for their fine work.

Cash Prizes and Dollar Day Too, Give Value Menu

Values on Friday, Dollar Day, and a drawing with a total of $150 in cash to be given away Saturday, are two of the attractive offers Canyon makes to the buying public. On the first Friday of each month the merchants of Canyon offer a special group of Dollar Day values.

The Dollar Day program has been in effect almost two years and during these two years has been instrumental in bringing the public some excellent values. Besides the excellent values offered by the merchants on Dollar Day, there is also the opportunity of showing the customers the appreciation of their patronage.

This will be the first time the buying public of Canyon has had an opportunity at extra values on Friday and a chance at the $100 first prize on Saturday for more than two years. The tickets collected for purchases on Friday will be good for the drawing to be held on the following day. The best days for saving and the excitement of the opportunity for a cash award are the two final shopping days this week, Friday and Saturday. That's Dollar Day and Drawing Day.

Local Women Are Head P-TA

Mrs. Cornette And Mrs. W. E. Miller Elected

MRS. JAMES P. CORNETTE, President

MRS. W. E. MILLER, Secretary

Mrs. James P. Cornette was elected president of the Eighth District, Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers, at the recent district conference in Tulsa. She succeeded Mrs. Orville K. Smith, Childress.

Chosen corresponding secretary of the district, at the same time, was Mrs. Winfield E. Miller, who previously had served as historian.

Mrs. Cornette, wife of the president of West Texas State College, is an active worker in civic, school, and women's club affairs in Canyon. She was president of the Canyon P-TA for two years, 1950-52, and is currently serving as parliamentarian. She was president of the Canyon Woman's Book Club for 1951-52 and is serving in that capacity again this year.

Dr. and Mrs. Cornette are the parents of three children, Marvin, a senior at Sam Houston State College; Jimmy, a freshman at West Texas State; and Bill, a fifth-grade student in Canyon's schools.

After going through the public schools of Kentucky, her native state, Mrs. Cornette did her undergraduate college work at Logan College and Bowling Green Business University, receiving her Bachelor of Science degree from the latter institution. Her graduate work was done at Western Kentucky State College, where she received the Master of Arts degree in 1941.

Mrs. Cornette worked for a time with the Virginia Quarterly Review at the University of Virginia, and she was for a number of years a teacher in the public schools of Alabama and a college instructor in Kentucky. She is a member of Delta Kappa Gamma, national sorority for teachers.

Mrs. Cornette came to Texas in 1945, when her husband became dean of Baylor University, and to Canyon in 1948, when he assumed the presidency of West Texas State.

Mrs. Miller, who reviewed history at the Tulsa conference, highlighting state conventions and district conferences for the past three years, has served as president of the Canyon P-TA for two years. She is the wife of W. E. Miller, who has been associated with the local post office for the past 27 years.

A graduate of West Texas State College, where she was a member of Kappa Omicron Phi, home economics fraternity, Mrs. Miller taught in the public schools for five years.

A past president of Sue Hite Federated Club, Mrs. Miller was secretary of the Educational Adequacy Committee of the Lay Advisory Committee set up by the Canyon Board of Education. She went to Austin early this month in the interest of the Teacher Pay Raise Bill.

Active in women's work in the Presbyterian Church, she has served as advisor for college and junior high school young people of the church. Mr. and Mrs. Miller are the parents of three children, John, a senior in high school; David, a sophomore; and Janis, a first-grade student.

Weed Control Conference Is Slated Thursday

Annual weed control conference for this year will be held tomorrow at the Bushland Experimental Station. This conference has been held several years, according to County Agent John Brazil. It is of interest to many farmers in this area as well as insecticide and herbicide dealers.

The program at the conference will include a number of interesting developments. A portion of it will be dedicated to research being carried on by the United States Department of Agriculture and Texas Agriculture Experimental Stations. There will also be a discussion of brush control through chemicals.

There will be an exhibition of spraying and dusting equipment. This exhibition on the ground will be for the purpose of showing people how equipment makes and models work. It will also be explained that the models being demonstrated at the conference are on the retail sales market.

The conference is an all-day affair and lunch will be served at the station.

Big Crowd Meets Goodwill Group

In spite of wind and dust that swirled about the square Wednesday afternoon, there was a large crowd present to welcome the visiting boosters. Two busses were used to bring the visiting boosters and Amarillo Air Force Base Band from their special train at the depot down to the square.

Mayor A. L. Walsh welcomed the group to town. They stopped and set up their sound system in front of the Olympic Theater where a large sign waved which read, "Welcome to Canyon." The sign was the work of the local Chamber of Commerce.

After a brief welcome by the mayor, A. L. Walsh, the publisher of The Canyon News, Clyde W. Warwick, also welcomed the visiting business men. The newspaper man explained that a warm welcome came from the heart of each citizen of Canyon.

After a few brief moments of entertainment by girls from the high school band, the goodwill troupe headed by Frank Helvey of Amarillo left on the last trip of their three-day tour.

Waggoner Goes to Lake Charles, La.

Glenn Waggoner, Chamber of Commerce secretary for the past year, left Saturday for his new position in Lake Charles, Louisiana. Waggoner will begin his official duties as Lake Charles Chamber of Commerce manager May 1.

Waggoner came to Canyon about a year ago. He left a position as Chamber of Commerce secretary-manager in Spearman to come to Canyon. The position at Lake Charles offers a great step of advancement in this type of work.

The town of Lake Charles is larger than Canyon by more than 60,000 people. This gives the chamber of commerce manager two broad fields to work in. First, the scope of activities will be much wider and, second, the budget will be considerably larger which will result in a more varied chamber program.

WT Newspaper Takes 7 Awards

West Texas State's Journalism Department took a holiday Friday and won an enviable group of prizes at the Texas Intercollegiate Press Convention at Midwestern University in Wichita Falls. The Prairie, WT's school paper, printed by The Canyon News, was entered in nine events and was competing against entries from 26 Texas colleges. It came up winner in seven divisions.

At the head of the field of prizes was the 1952 yearbook, Le Mirage, edited by Beverly Beck, senior of Canyon. This entry took first place. Four additional places were taken by the paper in the fields of general column, advertising, newspaper, and sports stories. The newspaper that nosed out The Prairie for first place was the Collegian of Mexico City College.

Individual awards go to Beverly Beck for advertising, Red Maxwell, general column, Bill Dilbeck, sports stories, and Bill Merry for short story writing.

The three-day convention was attended by some 250 college students. At the conclusion of the convention was the annual press banquet and the presentation of awards.

The 1954 convention site has been set as Mexico City.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS

Observations of Passing Events

All that we do not know would make a sizable book.

We do not profess to know all that there is to be known; or to know all that is going on in this rapidly growing, progressive town of Canyon.

From the picture printed in last week's issue of The Canyon News the new telephone building will be very, very attractive.

Many business houses around the square have undergone a face lifting during the past year. More business houses should follow suit. There are a few very ragged spots in the business section.

Freedom of the press under Peron means just one thing: Following orders of the dictator, and printing just what he desires to see in print. Even the dictators shall pass: They cannot impose their will upon a free people for long.

Those few die hard Democrats who insist that President Eisenhower has surrounded himself with ten millionaires; one millionaire; and one plumber, should take a page from the book of Governor Stevenson.

The defeated candidate for President is on a world tour, seeing things for himself. He is loud in praise of the attitude of the President on world affairs.

The little men who are staying at home continue to complain because Eisenhower has not straightened out in three months the mess which Democratic leaders have brought about in 20 years.

Eisenhower is no superman.

"Educational" is the term which the loud mouthed Senators are applying to their filibustering speeches against the Tideland Bill pending in Congress.

Senator Taft knows the difference between education and filibuster. He calls the delay by its correct name—filibuster—but is taking no steps to put an end to the wordy boys, who like to turn on their mouths and go their ways while their mouths jabber on. Taft has indulged in the practice a little too often to put an end to the talkfest.

Who was fooling the teachers of Texas last year during the campaign when they were promised a raise in salary?

If we remember correctly, all of the candidates were swarming around the teachers promising them everything under the sun for their votes in the primary elections.

What a change, now that the lawmakers face the people on an increase of taxes in order to pay the bill!

The liquor interests object to being taxed to pay the expense of rehabilitating the drunken sots of Texas. They say that the tax would be levied on persons living in dry territory, and since Texas is largely dry, the tax would not be just.

That's a joke. Who causes men and women to become drunkards?

Persons who live in Texas, either dry or wet territory, and never taste the stuff?

No, indeed, the tax would apply only on those who drink—both the occasional drinker, as well as the habitual drinker. The fellow who drinks liquor and thinks that he cannot live without it should be willing to be taxed to support the drunkards who are occasioned by the habitual habit.

The tax should be passed. It is grossly unfair to tax those who do not drink for the benefit of those who do drink.

When will colored print be available to the advertisers in The Canyon News?

We have already met this issue and wish to say that the time is long, long away. We called upon an equipment man recently who made a survey of our business and our plant. He estimated that it would cost us at least $150,000 to buy the necessary equipment to give the advertisers colored print; and that an expert, costing a lot of money, must be added to our force.

In addition to this, color in ads add from 25% to 50% to the cost of black ads.

Those papers which have colors available are using it very seldom, because of the added cost.

So that's that.

The trouble with driving is the poor example set before youths by their elders.

We cannot expect to see youth cut down their speed and cut out cavorting with their cars when they see their elders do these very things and get away with it.

Governor Shivers has let it be known that he does not intend giving up on his fight against the Democratic party in Texas so long as the Democrats insist upon being loyal to Truman—and nobody else.

Texas went for Eisenhower in November simply because this minority could not see beyond the Democratic party.

Texas did not go Republican any more than the state went Republican when the people of Texas voted for Hoover in preference to Al Smith.

In the first instance, it so happened that we were with the Smith crowd. In the second instance we were with Eisenhower—and we assure you that so far he has made no mistakes.

We are mighty happy to see that Governor Shivers will hold the ground which he has taken for the Eisenhower forces.

John L. Lewis has been pretty mum in recent months? Why?

There is less work for Lewis' miners.

His "welfare fund" is diminishing, instead of increasing as he had greatly hoped.

Lewis has killed the goose which laid the golden egg. The people have responded by changing over to oil for fuel, rather than continue having coal.

Lewis is finding out a serious lesson in economics: Products may be priced out of the market when the selling price becomes too high.

The Commies have lied to us once more!

We thought that the exchange of prisoners of war was a little too easy and too soft so far as the hard hearted Commies were concerned.

It now develops that hundreds of Americans have either been starved to death, or killed by the Commies.

In order to foster propaganda, the prisoners being sent back to the Commies have torn their new uniforms and staged a hunger strike in order to horrify their appearance.

Communism must be destroyed before the world can be safe!

Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey says that there is no depression in sight.

Naturally Humphrey is a big man in the financial world and can see farther down the line than a small country publisher.

We have been looking for evidence of a coming depression, but so far agree with Humphrey that none is in sight. A recession is not a depression, but let us assure you that there is on the horizon many indications that there is at present a real slow-down. No matter what brings about this situation: Drouth, cattle market; declined farm prices; Korea; whatever the cause, a recession is upon us.

Hear us holler!

We sure like to make a big noise when something shows up to cause us to holler.

The Republicans were induced into office on the spending spree of the Truman administration. We were for economy; that is, the kind of economy which saved our taxes, but hit the other fellow.

After all, there is no just tax except the kind of tax which is imposed on the other fellow. All taxes taken from our pockets are unjust!

We are just that silly in our thinking.

Here in this nation we shall find out that there is only one way to reduce taxes. That is by reducing expenses. But it hurts when the reduction hits our pet project.

We see that some of the department heads in Washington have resigned rather than face the reduction; others are raising their voices against the economy crowd.

We are sure that reducing expenses will not ruin the government.

American boys fighting in Korea aren't too concerned with the division line in Korea; what they want is a chance to live and grow old and, having retaken South Korea, they deserve the chance.

The average worker would perform better if he were allowed two vacations a year instead of one, though some modern-day "workers" seem to us to be on continuous vacation.

We think Field Marshal Montgomery paid his highest compliment to the sport recently when he said he was "fairly bursting" to see a big-league baseball "match."

It is easy to find an excuse for what one does not care to do, but the self-controlled individual attempts to do what conscience requires.

It is fine for us to enjoy religious freedom with the right to worship as we please, but it does us little good unless we really worship.

It is wrong to assume that people with more money than you do not have money troubles.

Make it a rule to stop lending people money. It's the worry about it that isn't worth it.

If you aren't reading material to improve your mind and learn about current events you are wasting your mental endowments.

Churches are merely human organizations trying to help humanity; they make mistakes but they aim in the right direction.

The President, it appears, is trying to do most of what he said he would do in his campaign, though progress comes slowly.

Peace is preferable to fighting in Korea, even if the cold war continues after the truce.

Opera Workshop Will Present Second Opera May 12-13; Amarillo Later

Preparations for the May 12-13 production of Mozart's comic opera, "Cosi Fan Tutte (Women Are Like That)," are being intensified at West Texas State College, with cast rehearsals set daily and stage sets and properties already under construction.

Opera Workshop director Holmes Ambrose, who will also double in the show's tenor role, has called rehearsals for the six member cast each night, leading to dress rehearsals two nights before the first performance.

Second operatic undertaking at West Texas State, "Cosi Fan Tutte" is a comedy with an enlarged love triangle, and while it is no less entertaining than the workshop's show last year, "H. M. S. Pinafore," it is a more ambitious program. A modern English version of Mozart's original, the opera's dialogue sparkles, its music is lively, and the plot contains scenes of comic relief incidents.

"Cosi" was produced in 1951 by the Metropolitan Opera Company, and was immediately successful, appearing on stages throughout the United States and Canada. The one set of orchestra parts controlled by the Metropolitan's publishers was flown from Toronto to WT, according to Ambrose.

Ambrose has enlisted the aid of some of the region's outstanding musicians for the opera's performance. A. Clyde Roller and several members of the Amarillo Symphony Orchestra will play with the orchestra, which will be directed by M. J. Newman, head of WT's music department. Stage director will be William A. Moore, director of WT dramatics, and sets will be designed by Miss Beverly Beck, a talented senior from Canyon.

Working almost all year toward the production of "Cosi Fan Tutte," Ambrose, with student aid and later with help of the college maintenance department, has redecorated the Education Theatre. A new main curtain has been hung, the stage was enlarged and renovated, and the orchestra pit enlarged.

Last year, "H. M. S. Pinafore" played to 1,100 people, with standing room only both nights, and Ambrose is expecting a larger crowd this year, consequently, he has scheduled a third performance in Amarillo's Stephen F. Austin Junior High School on May 21. Since only a few over 500 people may see each performance, the director is urging early reservations. Tickets will be $1.50 for adults and $1.00 for students.

The cast, besides Ambrose in the part of Ferrando, will include Miss Peggy Williams, Plainview, as Dorabella; Mrs. Thelma Fulton, Canyon, Fiordiligi; Miss Beverly Jo Nance, Amarillo, Despina; Bill Rogers, Tula, Guglielmo; and John Butler, Chicago, Don Alfonso.

What Is Thrift?

IF YOU PRACTICE REAL THRIFT YOU WILL FIND IT INCLUDES THESE THINGS:

1. SPEND, BUT DO NOT WASTE. This means the careful use of money, of materials, of time and energy.
2. SAVE, BUT DO NOT HOARD. Set aside regularly a part of your pay so you will have a financial reserve to see you through emergencies and to enable you to take advantage of opportunities which may come to you.
3. Do not get in debt beyond your ability to pay. Remember, there is always a day of reckoning.

Civil Defense Is Being Planned By Local Group

A Civil Defense program got underway last night with a meeting of ten officials at the fire station. The organization is for disasters, such as tornadoes, storms, and even atomic bombings. In case of alarm the alert signal will be two long blasts and a short one on the fire siren. After a minute it will be repeated. The all-clear is to be one long blast of about one minute's duration.

Discussion last night centered around getting organized. Those present were Alvin McDonald, Jack Jennings, Bill Sternberg, Andy Walsh, Bud Parker, L. S. Johnston, Win Matsler, Paul Lindsey, Truett Hull, and Lawrence Hunnicutt.

Directors of the organization will be Mayor Andy Walsh and County Judge Roy Joe Stevens. The deputy director is Bill Sternberg, and assistant director is Jack Jennings.

The various committees of the Civil Defense organization are police, fire, health, communications, transportation, relief, education, and utilities. Sheriff L. S. Johnston is head of the police committee. Fire chief Alvin McDonald is head of the fire committee.

Bob Gough will head the communications committee when he returns from the dial system school in Fort Worth. Until his return Truett Hull of Southwestern Public Service Company will take care of this job.

Paul Lindsey has the committee for transportation and evacuation of disabled persons in an emergency. Win Matsler is head of the civilian relief committee and Truett Hull will head the utilities committee.

An intensive program is being planned to educate the public about proper procedure to follow in case of emergency. There are a few simple rules that the public should follow in case of disaster. One of these is to stop and get out of any vehicle such as a car or bus.

If there is no appreciable time to prepare for the disaster the person should fall to the floor or the ground and bury his face in his arms. If you are home and there is warning the stove burners, lights, etc. should be turned off, and you should go to the nearest designated disaster shelter if there is one, if not, lie on the floor.

Scouts Work for National Trip

Saturday the mothers of Boy Scouts of Troop 66 were selling coffee and cookies on the square near the bandstand. The money for the cookie and coffee sales will go toward sending some of the boys to the big national camporee in California. The Boy Scouts themselves operate the concession unless they are busy with something else. Last Saturday they were engaged in Scout activities at Camp Don Harrington.

Local Scout workers are doing an excellent job of building up the Scout group here. The Scoutmaster, Edd Pettitt, and his assistant, Wayne Bagley, are spending a great deal of time with the boys.

Other local Scout workers are J. A. Young, Win Matsler, Tom Beard, Frank Barnhill, Elwood Shero, Gene Root, and John Hunter.

Mrs. J. D. Pruitt who has been employed at the T. E. Beard Agency is being transferred to Amarillo to the State Farm Insurance Company District office where she will be secretary to B. B. Williams, District Manager. She leaves today to assume her new duties.

THE JOSEPH A. HILL MEMORIAL CHAPEL

I walked into the Mexican government's travel information office last summer in Los Angeles and asked a young lady in Mexican costume a question. A man walked toward me and said, "You're from Texas." I replied, "Yes, I know—it's the way I talk, the drawl." He continued, "You're from Fort Worth."

"Well," your favorite (I hope) columnist rejoined, "you're better than the others out here; you not only name my state but my city; how do you do it?"

He went on, "And your name is House, Boyce House."

It turned out that he was from Texas, too; that we worked together in Fort Worth during the Casa Manana days 16 years before. His name was Mike Gallagher and, appropriately, he was born in Dublin—Texas, however, not Ireland. He has charge of the Mexican government's travel information office in Los Angeles and owns a coffee plantation in Mexico.

But he plans to return to Texas and raise dairy cattle near San Antonio.

While in Los Angeles, I took a street car ride and obtained a transfer but saw that I wouldn't have time to get to the baseball park before the game started and so didn't use the transfer. I was about to throw it away when I read these words, "To sell, exchange or give away this transfer is a misdemeanor for which the penalty is fine or imprisonment, L. A. Municipal Code, Sec. 72-20." Although no specific mention was made as to a penalty for throwing it away, I figured that might be illegal, too. So, Traction Company, if your books are out of balance and you wonder what happened to Transfer No. 001896 issued on Saturday, August 30, 1952, the answer is: I burned it—after returning to Texas.

One thing I can get along with—out: Chicken-fried steak—which tastes like neither chicken nor steak.

Art Exhibit at Museum Shown Until May 2

Varied media of art are being shown in the currently displayed West Texas State College Alumni and Student Art exhibit in the new library building. The show will remain on display through May 2. Opening the exhibit at a preview showing last Saturday, Russell Vernon Hunter, director of the Roswell Museum of Fine Arts, spoke on "Exhibition Trends." A tea preceded Hunter's talk.

"The trend to be seen in the present exhibit of students and alumni is away from the hackneyed approach of sentimental calendar type painting," according to Miss Isabel Robinson, art department head at WT. "There are more paintings in the abstract idiom, and even those representing naturalistic subject matter, are treated in a broader fashion than is to be seen in the usual local exhibit."

A large number of student and alumni paintings are being shown, including both oils and water colors, in landscapes, portraits, and still life. Among those shown are abstract works of Maurice Bernson, a WT ex now studying in Michigan.

Art in other mediums include sculptures of Hermon Hugg, the staebeals of Martha Hastings of Wheeler, and a group of string pictures, photographs, drawings, hand woven fabrics, weaving, china, ceramics, glass and plastic sculptures, and line drawings.

The works are displayed in the two lobbies of the library, in the corridors, and in the library's gallery. The public is invited to view the exhibits at any time.

Wirt Observes Formal Opening

Lorenzo Wirt said quite a large crowd attended the formal opening of his enlarged building for sales and shop work. He said the enlargement added about 600 square feet of floor space to his present building on the east side of the square.

Saturday's formal opening was highlighted by two drawings. The first drawing was conducted at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and the second at 6:45.

The three sets of door chimes in the first drawing were won by C. Boone McClure, H. C. Campfield, and Lee Roy Moreland. Mrs. Jack Barnard won the $20 credit on a TV set.

Winners in the 6:45 drawing were Mrs. E. W. Glenn and Miss Darthula Walker, door chimes; Mrs. Charles V. Conatser won the $20 credit on a TV set; Arline Goode won the portable radio, and Mrs. Mark Foster won the deep fat fryer.

We awoke one morning this week to the sight of a talisman rose smiling in at the east window. On the desk just inside our bedroom was the object of the greeting—a blue bowl filled with its lovely sisters. These we had brought from the living room the night before, after the guests left, because they were too pretty to waste on our empty room. Their soft fragrance must have colored our dreams, for we slept well.

In this day of synthetic "supers" of one kind and another, of mechanized living, a rose is truly a phenomenon. It is an aristocrat of nature. It has the gentle fragility of a well-bred woman. At each state in its brief span it has an appropriate charm, each different from the last. But always it brings a sense of peace that is reassuring.

To many the bud is its most beautiful form; to others, the full-blown rose.

"The bud is only a promise," says the spouse, who knows both roses and phrases. "It must reveal the golden heart at the center to give it purpose."

Other flowers have their own peculiar charms; the neat, church-going daisy; the exotic iris; the friendly, graceful snowball. But these do not carry a fragrance that keynotes the personalities as does that of the rose. And even the blossoms which are known first for their sweetness—gardenia, honeysuckle, petunia, tuberose, hyacinth—either do not have the beauty to live up to their heavy promise, or else grow old without grace.

If we had to choose one flower and give up all the rest for all time, our candidate would undoubtedly be the rose—that all-round symbol of sweetness, serenity and charm.

CHALLENGE TO THE INDUSTRY -the new GMC 400-27 that outpowers and outclasses its field

GMC's new 18,000 GVW hauler not only dwarfs trucks of 16,000 and 17,000 GVW, but overshadows—and underprices—those rated at 19,000.

In fact, the GMC 400-27 is designed to outhaul any truck up to 19,500 GVW. Its new engine of progressive design is stripped of excess weight, yet built stronger to absorb the stress of really high compression. It gives you brisker response, more power and mileage from regular gas.

It includes, as standard equipment, many features that are optional at extra cost on other trucks.

As a tractor—or as a truck—it can increase your hauling ability, give you impressively better equipment—and save you both purchase and operating money to boot.

130 GROSS HORSEPOWER—on moneysaving single carburetion. Valve-in-head engine, 270 cubic inch displacement, 7.5 to 1 compression ratio.

2-SPEED ELECTRIC SHIFT REAR AXLE—15,000 pounds capacity, is coupled with a 4-speed Synchro-Mesh transmission, putting 8 forward speeds at the driver's command. (Single-speed axle available at a saving; 5-speed transmission optional at extra cost.)

30,000 GCW—137" or 149" wheelbase in tractors; 161", 179" or 197" wheelbase in trucks (9- and 12-foot platform or stake bodies optional).

ALSO STANDARD EQUIPMENT: 4,500 pound capacity front axle—Hydrovac-actuated brakes—Morse M-400 main and connecting rod bearings—Tocco-hardened crankshaft.

Dr. MacMinn To Speak at WT's Counselor Meet

A West Texas Educational Guidance Conference has been planned Tuesday, May 5, at West Texas State College, and an invitation to attend has gone to superintendents and high school counselors of the Panhandle area.

Principal speaker for the conference will be Dr. Paul MacMinn, dean of students, University of Oklahoma, who will address counselors on "The How, What, and Why of Educational Guidance in the High School." Program has been arranged by Dr. Jack Walker, chairman of public services at West Texas State.

Registration opens at 9 a. m. with a "coffee and doughnuts" period before the general session.

starts at 10 in the Branding Iron Theatre. Dr. James P. Cornette, president of West Texas State, will welcome visitors, and a complimentary luncheon for visitors will be held in the college cafeteria.

Afternoon sessions will be devoted to work conference groups, to be held in West Texas State's new library building. Dr. MacMinn will lead informal discussions, and the pre-professional, general education, professional, and vocational programs offered at WTSC will be discussed.

Dr. MacMinn, a graduate of Westminster College, Pa., holds the M.A. and Ph.D. in guidance and psychology from Northwestern University. He has been dean of men at Northwestern University, personnel consultant, Adjutant General's Department of the Army, and psychological consultant at Chicago's Personnel Institute.

Britain Subject Of Talk at Lions Club Wednesday

"If you don't want socialism, stop it before it ever starts," was the advice of Dr. Lowell Harrison who spoke at the Lions luncheon Wednesday. Dr. Harrison spent ten months in Great Britain and spoke upon the general condition and politics of that country.

Harrison said that 50,000,000 people in Britain were huddled into an area the size of Oregon. The average wage of these people is $18 to $20 per week. The speaker said an annual salary of $2,800 in Britain is considered good wages. He also said that each person got about one egg and five ounces of bacon per week.

In the political picture Harrison said the country had two primary parties, the Labor and Conservative. He said there was more bitterness there than here between the two factions. There is no written constitution, no fixed term of office nor period for having elections. Normally an election is held every five years. The ruler of the country does not compare with the president of the United States. The controlling body in England is the House of Commons.

The group in power constantly has opposition from a "shadow" group opposing it. The speaker also said the Britons take their government speeches and voting more seriously than we do. In our last general election only about 60 per cent of eligible voters went to the polls but in Britain about 82 to 83 per cent turn out to vote in each general election.

Great Britain faces many difficult problems, including an attempt to de-centralize steel, trucking, and other major industries. The general economic condition of the nation needs improving, and modern techniques need to be employed.

It was also announced at the Lions luncheon that the variety benefit show brought a total of $288.03 at that time with total incomplete.

"Slim and Shorty," Bill Knighton and Gene Davis, sang "Down By the Old Mill Stream" before the main address.

Junior Lion for the week was Troy Black.

D. D. Monroe Takes Look at Rotary in Tuesday's Talk

D. D. Monroe of Clayton, N. M., was the Rotary speaker Tuesday, giving a humorous address on "A Country Boy Looks at Rotary." He was brought to the weekly luncheon by Walter Upchurch, who introduced the speaker.

Rotary carried the men of his community through the dust bowl, stated the speaker. The average man is only the average boy of the community who has grown up. In Rotary we see ourselves, but it is more important that we see ourselves from the inside.

Speaking of dictators, the speaker reminded that the more the head grows, the easier it is to fill the shoes of the individual.

War may cease in Korea, but the speaker is fearful that peace will not come to the world.

"Friendship is absolutely necessary in the days which are ahead," stated the speaker.

Holmes Ambrose announced that the second opera will be given at the college on May 12-13. The musical program Sunday afternoon at the college was announced by Dr. Dudley Moore.

Col. Raymond Lumry introduced the inspection party here for Tuesday as follows: Col. Kirk Brock of Dallas, Lt. Col. Lloyd G. Huggins of Tarleton State College, Major Henry Thompson of Austin, Capt. Robert Taylor of Dallas.

Other visitors were: Major Chas. W. Allen, Stuart Condon, J. W. Shook, Mrs. Boone McClure, all of Canyon; Mrs. S. B. Whittenburg, Chas. Trolinger, Van Allm, J. E. Bowman, Jack Brock, Guy Carlander, A. J. Foley, Porter Oakes, E. C. Wagner, all of Amarillo; Stoney Wall of Lubbock; Fred Kinsey of Los Angeles, Calif.

Alpha Sigma's "Asmar" Will Be Given Tonight

"ASMAR," Alpha Sigma Xi fraternity's minstrel and revue, will be presented tonight at 8 in the West Texas State College auditorium.

An annual production by the social club, the minstrel and revue are entirely student directed and produced. Admission to the show will be 75 cents for adults and 50 cents for students.

Ralph Wayne, Tulia senior, is director of the show and will serve as master of ceremonies. Harry Reeves, also of Tulia, is assistant director.

The minstrel show will include an interlocutor, end men, chorus, and quartet. The second half of the show will be a review with special numbers by the JazziBelles, Varsity Quartet, the Dixie-land Combo, and Donna Erwin, Canyon vocalist.

Costumes for the show were made by members of Pi Omega sorority. Make-up will be by Dorothy Patterson, Mary Hill, and Eleanor Phillips, all of Canyon.

Umbarger 4-H Boys Start Farm Contest

Umbarger 4-H Club boys are having a contest this summer in producing corn and grain sorghums. The boys are taking one acre of land and on this one acre they are using their 4-H club training in this project. Each will try to grow more grain sorghums or corn on his acre than any of the other boys.

Each boy will use his own ideas in selecting seeds, varieties, planting dates and methods as well as fertilization and irrigation. A committee of farmers in the Umbarger community will assist County Agent John Brazil in determining winners of the corn and grain sorghum growing contest.

No definite prizes have been established but the boys believe that by harvest time there will be a number of sponsors interested in their program. The boys believe that these sponsors will help them out with some awards.

Entries in the corn growing contest are Gerry Beckman, Melvin Prizilas, Gene Stocker, James Janssen, and Joe Artho.

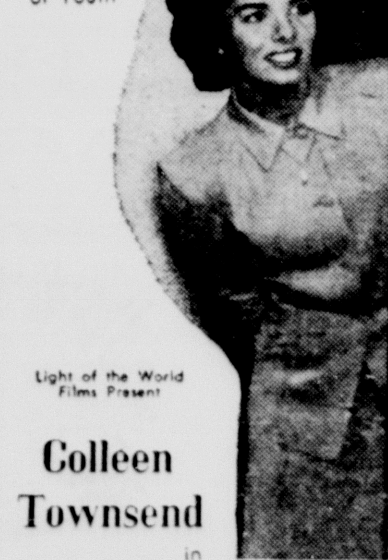

Those who have entered the grain growing contest are Johnny Beckman, Willie Artho, Melvin Prizilas, Joe Artho, Tom Gerber, Anthony Handing, Max Hoffman, James Janssen, Marcell Fischbacker, and Gerald Beckman.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Coston and Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Latham and son, Lonnie, and Mr. and Mrs. Jap Brazeal of Amarillo visited in the C. R. Hillier home Sunday.

Mrs. W. W. McElmurry of Sweetwater is visiting her brother and wife, Sheriff and Mrs. L. S. Johnston.

Upon graduation, he plans to enter Southwestern Seminary, Fort Worth, to prepare for the ministry.

When quite young, he suffered a crippling attack of polio which left rather obvious evidence, but it is a minimum handicap. Of this he says, "I do not allow it to make any difference in my work for the Lord. By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

The legislative spotlight centered this week on the question of whether or not public school teachers are going to get an increase in pay.

The teachers won an advantage when the Senate passed a bill giving them an increase of $600 a year.

Senator A. M. Aikin, Jr., of Paris sponsored the bill, which has the support of the Texas State Teachers Association.

In passing the bill, the senators heard a warning that it will force a tax increase of about $30 million a year.

In the House, meanwhile, the teacher pay bill bogged down last week in a mess of technicalities.

Representative Lamar Zivley of Temple, sponsoring the bill in the House, ran into trouble from the economy-minded members every time he tried to make progress with it.

For example, when Zivley attempted to get the bill transferred from the house appropriations committee to another committee which he considers more friendly, Representative Joe Kilgore of McAllen brought up the point of order that no such transfer may be made without first giving six day's notice.

Speaker Reuben Senterfitt sustained the point of order.

Zivley could not muster enough votes to suspend the rule. Nor could he get a motion passed instructing the committee to report immediately on his bill.

deny that his group is unfriendly to the teachers bill.

"I know from talking to some of the members that they are willing to vote out some kind of teacher pay raise bill," Smith said. "I don't know which one. It is possible that we could vote out a bill that wouldn't require a new tax."

Zivley's bill, said Smith, was delayed pending certification by the state comptroller that the money will be available for the general appropriation of $166 million for the next two years.

Shortly thereafter, Comptroller Robert S. Calvert said the appropriations are within anticipated state revenue.

Smith, mentioning a bare possibility that teachers could be given a raise without an increase in taxes, and puts a greater burden of school costs on the local districts.

Governor Allan Shivers had recommended a plan of this nature. But after last week's legislative skirmishing on the measure, the governor commented that a teacher pay increase bill without new taxes would look "like an empty gesture."

The only other recourse apparently is settlement of the pending gas tax suit in favor of the state. This would provide $45 million dollars. Shivers' stand is definitely against any new taxes.

The Governor, however, said that this legislature is, so far, "one of accomplishment." He expressed hope for passage of these measures:

1. Seven propositions dealing with water conservation.
2. A judicial redistricting bill.
3. Submission of Senator George Moffett's constitutional amendment to use the Confederate Pension fund surplus for new state buildings.
4. Co-ordination of higher education.
5. Action on a toll road program.
6. Classification of state jobs, and provision of higher pay for professional and technical employees.

Before the House went a judicial redistricting plan, aimed at the political organization of George Parr of Duval County.

The house judiciary committee approved a bill for redistricting without a dissenting vote.

The bill would reshuffle the strife-weary, four-county 79th judicial district of South Texas.

Affected in the changes would be Duval, Webb, Starr, Zapata, Jim Hogg, Jim Wells, Nueces, and Brooks counties.

Charges against Judge C. Woodrow Laughlin of the 79th District were aired in the Senate.

Judge Laughlin, a friend of Parr, was summoned on a resolution by Senator William H. Shireman of Corpus Christi. The resolution calls for an investigation of Judge Laughlin's conduct in office.

The judge had previously appeared before a House committee on the redistricting bill, and before a State Bar Association committee which was probing charges seeking to remove the judge from office.

A bar committee member reported "a very nice hearing."

The judge commented: "Now I know how an innocent man feels when he goes to trial."

A House bill by Representative

Bert Hall would increase the permit fees of beer and liquor dealers and set up a fund to fight alcoholism.

The bill has the support of the Texas Committee on Alcoholism.

Half a dozen witnesses appeared for the bill at a session of the house committee on revenue and taxation.

Art Stein, director of the New Mexico Commission on Alcoholism, testified that his state is providing clinical treatment for alcoholics at a cost of $140 per patient, and is effecting cures or rehabilitation in 80 per cent of incipient cases.

Former Speaker Homer Leonard, representing the beer industry, raised the objection that the tax would fall on wet counties, while much of the state is legally dry.

In the House is a bill that would bring about changes in the election code passed by the Legislature two years ago.

Passed by committee was the bill, which would repeal cross filing, remove the requirement that candidates file their expense accounts, and provide for polls to remain open until 8 p. m.

Visitors at the capitol the other day were the Perricone quadruplets of Beaumont, the only male quads in the world.

The 23-year-old brothers, Anthony, Bernard, Carl, and Donald (ABCD) are on duty with the Air Force Reserve. They have just completed a tour of duty in Korea.

SHORT SNORTS: The Senate has a bill, already passed by the House, that would cut off salaries of state employees refusing to testify about their communist connections on the grounds that such testimony might incriminate them.

Dual control of state hospitals — administrative and medical — is provided for by these salaries in the appropriation bill. executive director, $15,000 a year; mental hospital director, $12,500; tuberculosis hospital director, $12,500; administrator, $8,700; educational director, $7,500; and design engineer, $7,500. Texas is going to have an official duck-calling champion, to be selected at Beaumont during the South Texas Fair. Making it official is a proclamation by the governor.

REALLY POTENT

Two soldiers were boasting about the potency of the moonshine in their particular part of the mountains.

"The white mule my uncle makes is so powerful you take one drink and you see colored pictures on your television," said one.

"That's nothing," said the other, "the moonshine my father makes is so powerful you see pictures on all 12 channels without a set!"

POORLY TIMED

Jones suggested to his wife that they go over to the neighbor's house and watch the baseball game on television. For three hours they watched the game, then sat through a wrestling match for another hour. Finally, Mrs. Jones said:

"Harry, don't you think it's about time?"

"Say," interrupted her husband, "did you come over here to jabber or to watch television?"

PAY NO ATTENTION

THEORY

"Your wife is a very systematic woman, isn't she?" asked Robinson.

"Yes, very," replied Smith. "She works on the theory that you can find whatever you want when you don't want it by looking where it wouldn't be if you did want it."

A MENTAL "FACIAL"

Wife — Richard, my mind is made up.

Hub — Heavens! Is that artificial, too?

DOUBLE LOAD

Hubby: "No wonder. Too much work for one."

Early Spring To Start Campaign To Swat Flies

Early spring is the best time for a community to start a fly control program, declared Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer. That is before the fly population has a chance to multiply. It is estimated that one pair of flies, under favorable conditions, could have counted less ancestors before winter.

Every time you kill a fly early in the season, and destroy breeding places, you stop whole colonies of flies before they can start. The most effective way of preventing swarms of flies is to destroy or make inaccessible to flies the organic material which attract flies by their odors, and which are essential to them as food and breeding places.

Individual householders should make it their responsibility to clean up their own back yards. Garbage cans should have a tight fitting lid and they should be leak-proof. Inadequate facilities for storage of garbage and refuse usually result in widespread fly breeding.

Uncovered or partially covered garbage containers produce odors that attract a large number of flies. Good window screens will do a lot to keep flies out of buildings, thereby protecting food from contamination by fly-borne disease organisms.

There is no substitute for good sanitation in fly control. Every spot in town must be cleaned of garbage and trash. If a few dirty places are left, swarms of flies will breed. A neglected stable on the edge of town will furnish a plague of flies for the entire neighborhood. After garbage and trash have been removed, insecticides will help to reduce the fly population in local spots. It is a temporary protection, however, and should be regarded only as a supplemental or emergency means of control. Insecticide spraying will be effective only if sanitary conditions are maintained throughout the summer.

FUNNY FACES

It was lunch hour at the plant and Pat's two buddies decided to play a little joke on him during his absence. They drew the features of a donkey upon the back of his coat. In due time Pat returned and presently hove in sight bearing the decorated coat.

"What's the trouble, Pat?" asked one casually.

"Nothing much," replied Pat, equally indifferent, "only I'd like to know which one of y'd wiped your face on me coat."

RAIL PAYROLL

Through the greater use of diesel locomotives and the installation of more labor-saving devices, the nation's railroads last year brought about a decline in the payroll despite the higher wages rates. Although the gross volume of traffic declined in 1952, the payroll of the railroads exceeded $5,000,000,000 for the second consecutive year — $5,325,000,000. In 1940 the payroll was only $1,991,000,000.

Local Herds Are Tops in Quality

Two Canyon dairymen show up as top men in their field in March issue of the Dairy Herd Improvement Association news.

At the head of the list for herds high in milk and butterfat is Neil Downing. Neil was recently given a loving cup by the Chamber of Commerce for the highest producing cow at the Randall County Dairy show. The figures in the D.H.I.A. news show Downing only slightly ahead of the Hinders Brothers in the class of herds high in milk and butterfat.

In the ten high cows in milk production the Hinders Brothers and Downing also have high ranking stock. The two dairymen rank high in the bracket of ten high cows in butterfat also.

Every category listed in the bulletin shows the two local dairymen as having stock ranking high. In the 50 to 60 pound class one of Neil Downing's Holsteins heads the list. The 40 to 50 pound class list is headed by one of the Hinders Brothers' animals.

Traffic Lines are LIFE LINES!

Throw a line to a drowning person and with all his remaining strength he reaches for it—to save his life. Throw one or two solid lines down the length of a highway, and too many drivers ignore it in their hapless hurry to get somewhere fast.

But those, too, are life lines. Road markings at danger points are put there to save lives. Passing on the wrong side of the road, violating right-of-way, cutting in, passing on curves or on the right, failing to signal a turn or intention to pass and other reckless acts are utter disregard for life. Traffic gamblers guilty of these violations cost the lives of 11,000 persons and injured more than half a million others in 1950—and the toll increased last year.

Have you ever been guilty of crossing a traffic line when it wasn't necessary? Have you taken the right-of-way when it wasn't yours to take? How often have you seen a squeeze coming and breathed a sigh of relief when Lady Luck gave you one more chance?

The life line in the palm of your hand doesn't contemplate violent death on the highway. Your future may be written—or written off—in the way you drive. You—and only you—can make your driving life line longer.

Something Is Wrong When People Cough

A cough is just a symptom and not a disease, says Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. It is an indication that something is wrong in the body's respiratory tract or breathing tube.

When an object obstructs the respiratory passage a cough is nature's reflex to remove the obstruction. Such a cough is simple and transient. The same thing happens when the throat or lower passages are irritated during a cold, whooping cough, asthma, smoking, low humidity and dust.

A cough can be produced by more serious conditions such as tuberculosis or cancer. Constant coughing brings on fatigue as a person's rest is affected by the constant hacking.

A prolonged cough might indicate chronic bronchitis, a condition which in most cases is secondary to an infection elsewhere, such as the nose, throat or sinuses. Mucous draining into the throat may cause such irritation that the victim may involuntarily cough repeatedly to bring up the material.

Hoarseness is produced by persistent coughing in some persons. Hoarseness is a symptom of an inflamed larynx. Hoarseness lasting for six weeks or more is a serious symptom suggestive of cancer and must not be disregarded.

No persistent cough should be disregarded. The nature of the infection and its location may be shown by an examination of the material expelled, and a thorough examination by the family physician will determine the cause and give a basis for treatment.

LAIRS ENTERTAIN CLUB

Town and Country Club met with Mrs. Tom Lair last week with husbands of the members as their guests.

"42" was the diversion for the evening. "Going Away" gifts were presented to Mrs. Reta Dickinson and Mrs. Jimmie Sparkman. Mrs. Reynolds and Mrs. Arthur Olson were honored with handkerchief showers in remembrance of their birthdays.

Delicious refreshments were served to Mr. and Mrs. Edd Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Burrus, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Olson, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Costley, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Byars, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Gatten, and Mr. and Mrs. John Cook.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. L. T. Campbell on May 7.

Safety Comes First

Now that the all-school picnic is coming up next Friday, and at this time it is true that each individual takes his own life in hand, it might be well to brush up a bit on our manners of safety.

The school picnic is a highlight ending the school term of every year. Safety should come before anything!

People sometimes forget about being careful, and they often lay aside this fact that safety comes first. Many things can happen if we do forget. For example, someone is walking along unaware of safety at the present time. He steps on a rattlesnake or walks too close to a soft shoulder of a bank and falls. These are only two examples of carelessness.

A boy is climbing a steep bank. He reaches for a stone to pull himself up and places his hand on a Cottonmouth. A group goes walking on green hills only to find that these "green hills" are covered with poison ivy.

Whatever we do on our day of fun next Friday, constantly remind and remember that "safety comes first." Just have fun and be careful, and if we do we'll find the school picnic one of the most enjoyable days of our lives.

The other day as ol' Cal was wanderin' around town, he saw Burton Davis, Guy Ford, and Jacky Pruett zooming down the street in R. A. Burgess' automobile singing "Rub a Dub Dub," three men in a tub. They came roaring on down the street and came to a crash landing at the stop light. Cal saw his chance and jumped on the rear bumper.

Guy, who was driving, started singing "Wheel of Fortune," and Burton and Jacky "jined" in with "Honeymoon on a Rocketship." They kept going straight on the Palo Duro highway and came bumper to bumper with Edward Wells, who had to take to the bar ditch. Jerry Don, who was with him, leaned out the window and yelled "Do you need any help?"

The three in the speeding car just kept full speed ahead, that is, until they caught a glimpse of Bob Wilkinson coming along the road in his souped-up hot-rod. When he had roared on past, Guy pulled a speedy "dust-spin" and took right in behind him.

They were neck and neck for quite a spell, but then an old man in a Model T Ford beeped his horn and pulled around the racing cars. Cal heard the old gentleman harmonizing with his chickens he was taking to town on "I'm Not Too Old To Cut The Mustard Anymore."

It was at this point that Guy hit an unusually hard bump and ol' Cal lost his bearings and went flyin' over the nearest barbed wire fence. He has no idea of what further adventures came to the three.

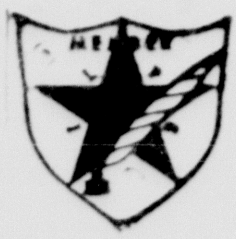

Polio Research Is Nearing Climax

A vaccine that will prevent polio, the ultimate goal of the March of Dimes, was hailed by Brigadier General Robert J. Smith, state campaign chairman, as concrete evidence that the long years of research are approaching a climax.

Much of the money received by the March of Dimes is used for research, and it is believed that this vaccine will soon be perfected.

General Smith states, "Those who worked in the March of Dimes together with the hundreds of thousands of Texans who gave their dimes and dollars now may be assured that their effort and their money is bearing fruit."

CHS contributed a total of $94.87 to this worthy cause.

History of Canyon Schools Related Harrison Is New To P-TA by Mrs. Harrell Recently CHS Head Coach

The foundation for Canyon's first school was laid in 1890, with completion of the one-room, unpainted structure in early 1891. Just before Christmas of 1891, eleven students entered Canyon's first public school. This school was coached by Miss Emma Turner, who received $40 a month. She was 22 years old, and came all the way from Kansas to teach this school. M. M. McGee was the first superintendent and county judge.

New FHA Officers Are Elected; Hess Speaks

Future Homemakers of America, Canyon chapter, met Tuesday night, April 21, in the high school cafeteria for the purpose of re-electing officers for the 1953-54 school term. The nominating committee's report was given by Virginia Holt and was accepted.

Officers elected were Sue Keeling, president; Nora Dell Ruthart, vice-president; Anna Marie Barker, secretary; Virginia Leake, reporter; Alice Simms, pianist; Wanda Rogers, song leader; June Davis, historian; and Charlotte Crain, parliamentarian. These officers will be installed at the regular meeting May 14.

Hauns Hess, a young student from Germany attending WTSC, spoke to the group about his homeland and his reactions to some of our customs and habits. After Mr. Hess' talk, Ralph Ruthart showed the films he took at the Sweetheart Banquet.

Approximately 60 girls attended the meeting. Immediately after adjournment, refreshments were served.

Wanette Green Named New FTA President

Wanette Green, junior, was elected president of the Future Teachers of America for the ensuing year at a meeting of the FTA last Monday evening, April 20, in the home of Mrs. L. E. Gum. This meeting was called to elect new officers and plans were also made for a picnic.

With Dorothy Cleavinger, preceding president, presiding, Alice Simms, sophomore, was elected vice-president; Nancy Riley, junior, was elected secretary; Ann Moore, sophomore, was elected treasurer; Sue Keeling, junior, and La Nelle Gum, sophomore, were elected historians; and Virginia Leake, sophomore, was elected reporter.

Mrs. Ed Harrell was guest speaker at the meeting. Her subject was "The History of the Canyon Schools."

Employers say graduates cannot spell or compute.

Canyon High School Teachers Display Diversified Hobbies and Collections

Contrary to the belief of many students that the instructors in our school system are just old fogies, these teachers have out-of-school hobbies and activities just as students do. Many of the hobbies of the teachers were displayed at the April meeting of the Classroom Teachers Association.

Displayed by Miss Claudia Neelley was a modern trend in weaving. She has collected grasses and weeds of native West Texas, and made unusual textured and designed mats. Mrs. Zula Usery displayed her excellently wood carved picture frame, tray, and salad set. Miss Elva Fronabarger exhibited a large cookbook collection.

Family hand painted Bavarian, Limoges, and Haviland china, Batenburg lace, handwork heirlooms consisting of colonial and modern shadow embroidery were displayed by Marilyn A. Payne. A set of dishes, sugar-cream set, and a chocolate pot were all painted by members of the family.

Miss Mae Simmons presented an unusually large weaving collection of interesting and different textures and historic patterns. Mrs. Cortez Dowlen exhibited a quilt that is an exact copy of one given to Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt.

Handkerchiefs

A collection of handkerchiefs was shown by Mrs. T. W. Collins. Two are made of parachute silk, camouflaged and blood-stained. Sidney Burgess displayed a beautiful lamp. He says his hobby is making a useful and beautiful article out of material someone has discarded. Mrs. Burgess sang "In the Garden of Tomorrow." This was an example of her hobby.

A large collection of records is Miss Ada V. Clark's hobby, and her records provided background music. Also she showed her self-designed needlepoint work. Mrs. Joe Findley brought a large display of cookie presses and cutters. She passed out samples of her cooking.

Promising to treat the group to a trout supper, L. B. Penick exhibited his hand-made flier and equipment for trout fishing. Mrs. Isabelle Cousins brought a large bottle collection, which she has maintained since she was a small girl.

AAUW To Honor Graduating Girls

American Association of University Women will give the annual reception honoring high school and college girls graduates May 4 at 8:30 at Cousins Hall. This will be a formal affair and each senior girl is urged to attend.

This reception is always given to honor those girls finishing high school and to encourage them to enroll in college.

Dr. Vera R. Maxwell, Texas state president of AAUW, will be the special speaker.

The 27 senior girls are Nancy Bolton, Peggy Bonds, Elvira Boyd, Dorothy Cleavinger, Sarah Colwell, Elaine Cundiff, Frances Cunningham, La Rue Davis, Barbara Glanton, Shirley Glenn, Janie Jennings, Janet Johnson, Sue Ann Kinney, Lynn McKinney, Shirley Marshall, Mrs. Carlene Morton, Mary Owens, Gaylene Pettit, Carol Rose, Marieta Sanders, Grace Sheets, Mrs. Lucille Bruce, Lucille Simon, Laura Smith, Shirley White, Catherine Wiegard, June Wortham, and Annette Pond.

In 1914, the science department was provided with new equipment. Home economics and agriculture became vocational in 1913, and typing, bookkeeping, shorthand, and junior business became accredited in 1934. In 1923 only two busses were maintained, and now a fleet of 15 busses furnish transportation for the Canyon public schools.

Organization of the band was in 1933, with a total of 55 members dressed with new uniforms in 1938.

What a difference in the early schools of 1890 and our present system!

The first thing in painting is to get the confident feeling of just letting the colors flow on with easy, free strokes," Miss Claudia Neelley, art instructor, explained as she was emphasizing the advantages of getting the right color and the right feeling before actually beginning a painting when she sponsored the second annual art fair. The fair was held in the American Legion Hall April 24 and 25.

All grades who were taking art participated in this gala affair, and placed their paintings, craft work, and pottery on display.

Miss Neelley also explained that the key to art is to represent one's own feelings, actions, and thoughts. She is trying to teach her students to make designs. "Anyone can make designs if they have confidence and proper training," she said. She is trying to teach her students to put harmony into the material according to the use of the finished project.

Two types of painting are perspective and evocative. Perspective painting gives the appearance of distance, and in the painting there is a point where the landscape meets the horizon. In evocative painting, the water and colors are placed on the paper, and the water and colors are then allowed to run together and form whatever picture they may.

Craft work, pottery, and figure painting were all on display. Art students from CHS had examples of each type of art work and also some fire prevention posters.

Mr. Hunter said that Miss Neelley's work was good because of appropriate use of materials.

"You say that Maud lost her engagement ring. How?" "Washing her hands of Jack."

WT exes of Randall County met to organize Saturday night, January 17, 1931.

Under an ultra violet lighting system, Chet Dixon presented a marionette show at CHS last Tuesday, April 21. This ultra violet light, seldom seen in the entertainment world, made the puppets actually glow. The rays of the unusual lighting system had a purple cast to them but they were really black. The black light ray is sometimes used in night flying.

Chet Dixon's show has made a top hit on television, stage, and screen.

A group of elementary school children attended the show as guests.

Mr. Hunter said that Miss Neelley's work was good because of appropriate use of materials.

Guy T. Harrison, former head track coach and B squad football coach at Phillips High School, is the new head coach at Canyon High School. Mr. Harrison has been with the Phillips Blackhawks for four years, going there from Laredo.

Mr. Harrison is a graduate of Post High School, and received his B.S. from East Texas State College in 1947, his M.S. from the same school in 1948. He spent three years in military service with the 99th Artillery.

The youthful coach is only 28 years of age, but his boys in former schools have placed in state contests for the past four years. His B squad at Phillips High School lost only five out of 34 games played during his stay there.

Forty-four CHS boys reported for spring training under Mr. Harrison last week.

Canyon High Band Ranks Second In Interscholastic League Contest

Representing Canyon High School in the annual Interscholastic League Band Contest April 23-24, the CHS band received three second ratings. Lacking only two-tenths, the band would have received a first rating in concert division. Sight reading and marching gave the band a second rating.

Demus, Swatzell Direct Band

The band has been under the direction of Herman W. Demus for the past five years with the assistance of William C. Swatzell for the past two years.

Mr. Demus was born in Belvidere, Illinois. He came to Texas in 1943 where he served at the Amarillo Air Field as a clarinetist in the Air Force Band. His first directorship was at White Deer where he remained until he became director of the CHS band in 1949.

Mr. Demus holds a B.M.S. degree from Vandercook School of Music in Chicago, Ill., and B.S. and M.A. from West Texas State College. He also attended Northern Illinois State Teachers College.

Mr. Swatzell was born in Birmingham, Alabama. He is better known to students as "Swatzy." He first attended Howard College in Alabama and continued his studies at SMU in Dallas. He has a B.S. degree and six hours of graduate work at West Texas State.

Mr. Swatzell also served with the armed forces. He is assistant director of the band and director of the elementary and junior high school bands.

CHS Tennis Teams Play Final Games

Coach Lynn Hulsey's tennis team played its last games of the 1953 tennis season Wednesday, April 22, at Tulia. Jo Ann Mickey won both sets of tennis over Delores Hutto 6-4 and 6-2. Joe Dickerson lost to Garland Wade 6-4 and 6-4. Charles Miller and Charles, playing doubles won 6-4.

The students who played tennis for CHS were Barbara Glanton, Peggy Bonds, Dorothy Cleavinger, Jo Ann Mickey, Mitch Murry, Joe Dickerson, Charles Joyner, Charles Miller, Charles Boling, and Leroy Dickerson.

REPS SPEAK

Representatives of the four main branches of the armed services spoke to boys of the junior and senior classes Monday night in the high school auditorium.

Mickey Scores in Tennis Tourney

Jo Ann Mickey got to the tennis semi-finals of the girls' singles before losing out at the Amarillo Sandie Relays, April 17-18, in the Amarillo stadium. Jo Ann's first victory came by winning two games and losing one to Frances Hall of Sudan. Sharron Swift of Wellington forfeited to Jo Ann April 18. Jo Ann's loss was to Sharron Stubbs of Amarillo Saturday, April 18.

Joe Dickerson won his game over John Galle of Midland in the boys' singles, but lost to Royce Hill of Odessa. In the boys' doubles, Charles Boling and Charles Miller won over Memphis' team by forfeit. Albuquerque's team won over them Saturday morning, April 18.

Peggy Bonds and Dorothy Cleavinger lost their first two sets of girls' doubles to Odessa Friday evening.

Home Ec Girls Give Dinner for Mothers

Homemaking III students gave a buffet dinner Monday, April 27, in the clothing lab of the home-making department, having their mothers as guests.

Tables were placed in a U shape, and covered in white with yellow candles and shasta daisy centerpieces with placecards carrying out the colors.

The menu consisted of fried chicken, garden peas, corn on cob, tossed garden salad, rolls, butter, lemon chiffon pie, tea and lemons. Each unit of girls had certain duties to perform which made entertaining quite simple and enjoyable. Forty mothers and daughters enjoyed the 6 o'clock affair.

Homemaking III girls are Mary Alice Bauer, Doris Bourn, Billene Childers, Elaine Cundiff, Sarah Colwell, Wilma Cooper, Mary Dodson, Billie Graham, Virginia Holt, Arlene Johnson, Lynn McKinney, Annette Pond, Shirley Peppard, Jane Rose, Nora Dell Ruthart, Peggy Sewell, Peggy Shero, Lucille Simon, Pat Vandergriff, and Catherine Wiegard.

CHOIR GOES TO HEREFORD

Before a responsive audience, the Canyon High choir presented a choral assembly to the Hereford student body at Hereford April 21.

The choir started the assembly by singing a group of spiritual songs. The boys octet sang a few selections and the assembly was brought to a close with the singing of secular songs.

MRS. DAVIS RECEIVES PLAQUE

Mrs. John Davis, instructor in the Canyon public schools for years, received the plaque and pin signifying life membership in the local P-TA at a recent meeting of the association.

Mrs. Davis will retire from teaching at the close of this term.

Was It Worth It?

Have you ever worked hard toward a goal and at the point of exhaustion be asked by a passerby, "Do you think this is worth the effort?" Something similar happened soon after the doors of the public art exhibition were opened. But the throngs of interested children whose appreciative scrutiny or pride of accomplishment brightened their faces as they examined crafts objects and colorful paintings, held the answer.

Second Grade
A child in the second grade happily pointed out a painting of a woolly dog done by an eighth grade pupil and repeatedly tugged at classmates near him until he had a group of his fellows thoroughly exuberant over "somebody's woolly dog." From another corner of the exhibit hall came gay laughter as a group of slightly older children enjoyed cleverly made comic animals, the like of which never existed in the real animal kingdom. In another area a student who was demonstrating pottery processes laid aside his carefully planned vases in order to please his very young audience by creating instead comic figures for the little folk.

Business Man
A hurried business man stepped into the exhibit hall, paused a minute, a new look capturing his face. The tense lines relaxed. "What beautiful colors!" he exclaimed. "And children did this?" The magic spell of fresh color and childish art expression had put his weariness to rest.

Is this worth the effort? The above are only a few reasons why people enjoy art. Few reasons why it does for the people. Because of what it does for the people, big and little, old or young, it is big and little, it was truly worth while. Crafts on the high school level were more in evidence this year. They were crafts that utilized the students' growing understanding and appreciation of design. Wood, clay, leather, and art metals were materials used in demonstrating the skills learned during this year.

Now don't you agree? It was really worth the effort.

FFA Teams Win In Area Contests

Three of the Canyon High School FFA teams who entered the area competition will journey to Austin next Saturday to compete in the state FFA meet. The teams which will go are livestock, dairy cattle, and dairy products judging teams. As there is no state competition for crop judging, this team will not go.

The dairy cattle judging team consisted of Norman Tueck, Edward Hinders, and Jimmy Kuhlman. This team placed eighth in contest, and fourth in area. Norman was the third high man in the contest.

Doyle Bourn, Foster Parker, and Larry Porter were on the livestock judging team which placed ninth in contest and fifth in area.

Winning fourth in contest and third in area was the dairy products judging team consisting of Tommy Middleton, Jerry Downing, and Jack McCormick.

Garland Ruthart, Ralph Miller, and Joe Carver were on the crop judging team which won fifth in contest and second in area, but do not attend the state meet in Austin.

Mickey Places in Regional Contest

Jo Ann Mickey, junior, placed third in essay writing at the regional meet in Lubbock April 25. Jo Ann's subject was "It Just Isn't Being Done." She is the only CHS representative who placed at the regional meet. The shorthand and journalism departments didn't place, and the track boys were eliminated in the first round.

MISUNDERSTANDING

"How's your old father?" "He's in Heaven now." "So? I'm very grieved to hear that."

Foreman Identifies Mystery Farm As Y. J. Ranch

This mystery farm turned out to be a ranch. It is the last one run and is not really a farm but the Y. J. Ranch located 17 miles southwest of Canyon. The owner is Beaumont Strinnett of Amarillo. Bill Ayent, the ranch foreman, was in Saturday to identify the place. The entire ranch covers 7,000 acres but only about 400 acres are in cultivation. The foreman said the principal purpose of the cultivated land was for raising bundle stuff for the Hereford cattle on the ranch.

Just Between You, Me and ... the Gatepost

By Lawrence Hunnicutt

Friday W. J. Wooten explained some of the finer points of the ups and downs of the movie business. At present the industry is in a huge change-over and when it's all going to settle down is anybody's guess. The thing that's causing all the turmoil is the new development of three dimensional pictures. Mr. Wooten says there are about ten different organizations pioneering this field and that the majority of the theaters will have to wait for the competition to boil down to two or three of these organizations.

The fast pace of progress has hurt both towns and businesses during the past half-century. T. A. Black related some of the things that the late Oscar Gamble told him. Gamble was a Canyon business man back in the horse and buggy days and on up to the days of paved highways and fast automobiles. Gamble told Black that business fell off 25% in Canyon when the pavement was completed to Amarillo.

According to some authorities, this drop continued until 75% of the home money was being drained out. Today many of the merchants feel that Canyon business men are getting 25% of the home money and that the other 75% is going to other places because fine highways and high powered cars make it easy and fast to get to larger cities. Perhaps it's not a nice thing to mention "survival of the fittest" but to a certain degree it will always be here.

Charlie Donnell is one of the busiest men in town. In addition to trying to get major improvements at the City Club, where he is president, Charlie is keeping the people of this area in movie entertainment. Last week he got his movie calendars out for the month of May. Of course it was just a coincidence that he started the Canyon Drive-In Theater on my birthday. The first picture he has booked for the Drive-In for this season is "I'd Climb the Highest Mountain." The date, May 22.

Here are some of the facts concerning the drop in milk prices as of April 12. The facts are from an authoritative source who didn't want to be quoted. As you know the retail price of milk dropped one cent per quart. The drop in price to the dairymen was listed as 49 cents per 100 pounds of milk. According to authorities, there are slightly more than 46 quarts of milk in 100 pounds which means the dairymen lose slightly more than one cent per quart because of the milk price drop.

The factors leading up to the milk price drop are as obscure and vague as tomorrow's weather. The basic cause of the reduction was explained by one authority as being the result of a production of milk that exceeded the demand. Some say the production was created by an expected feed shortage that didn't occur and others say the feed shortage is still here. At any rate, no acute feed shortage seems to have covered any broad area for a long period of time.

Service station and garage men have a saying about car batteries that "Summer wears 'em out and winter shows 'em up." Last week the city's repair crew was out to fix up some places in the streets that got damaged last winter. Now it isn't probable that summer wore the streets out and winter finally showed them up. Some of the people who had cars parked at an angle around the courthouse and came back to find it in the center of the street might have felt that a practical joke was being played on them. The workmen pushed the cars out in the center parking area in order to patch the damaged spots of pavement near the sidewalk about the courthouse.

Have you heard that two can still live as cheaply as one if one's a vegetarian and the other a nudist on a diet? The best way to jingle coins in your pockets is to shake a leg. It takes a man with a very large vocabulary to describe a shapely girl without using his hands.

CROP SPRAYING

The Civil Aeronautics Board has reported that 49 persons lost their lives in aerial crop control accidents last year. In addition, 41 persons were injured seriously, and 253 pilots survived accidents unhurt, or with minor injuries. Almost half of the accidents involved collisions with such objects as wires, poles, trees and fence posts.

E BOND SALES

Sales of savings bonds in the United States amounted to $919,000,000 in January and February, and turn-ins totaled $804,000,000, resulting in a sales gain of $115,000,000, according to the U. S. Treasury. Last year, for the first two months, redemptions topped sales by $124,000,000.

An estimated 34,500 automobile accidents and 1,515 fatalities occurred on unlighted streets compared with 13,749 mishaps and 503 deaths involving drunken driving, according to a National Street and Traffic Safety Lighting Bureau report, covering 11 states.

GAMBLING TAX

Since the U. S. Supreme Court ruling that the stamp tax law was constitutional, Internal Revenue officials indicated that prosecution of gamblers for failure to register and buy occupation stamps will be stepped up. Congress voted the occupational tax on gamblers in 1951, but has not voted any extra funds to the Revenue Bureau for its enforcement.

CONTROL-FREE INDUSTRY

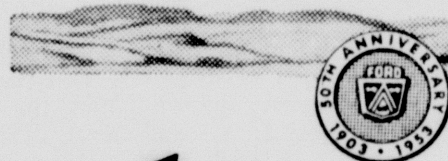

The Eisenhower Administration, pushing its decontrol program, has drafted final plans to free civilian industry from virtually all controls by July 1st. The Office of Defense Mobilization has announced a new "defense materials system," to be established at midyear to provide allotments of steel, copper and aluminum for military and atomic contracts only.

You really GO

When you go Ford V-8 you get this fine car power without paying a premium.

What kind of engines are you finding in more and more of America's finest cars? Yes, V-8 engines. And no wonder, for no other type of car engine available today can beat V-8's for compactness . . . and for smoothness. And Ford and only Ford offers you a V-8 engine in a low-priced car! It's the wonderful result of Ford's experience building more V-8's than all other makers combined . . . over 13,000,000 of them.

Fifty Years Forward on the American Road

when you go V-8

It's just one of 41 "Worth More" features that make Ford worth more when you buy it . . . worth more when you sell it.

Imagine! A car so low in first cost keeps its value better than any other car on the American Road. Used-car figures on last year's cars prove that. And with its 41 "Worth More" features, this newer, finer '53 Ford holds still greater promise of long-lived value. You'll find built-to-last Crestmark Bodies. You'll find a new kind of ride that practically "repaves" the roughest roads. And these are but samples of the reasons why Ford is worth more when you buy . . . worth more when you sell.

NEWS LETTER

From Congressman WALTER ROGERS
of the 18th Congressional District

Alaskan Statehood

The Subcommittee on Territories and Insular Possessions, of which I am a member, has been holding extensive hearings on the Alaskan statehood bill. These hearings are more extended, more informative and a great more in detail than were the hearings on the Hawaiian statehood bill.

The committee has heard numerous witnesses during the past several weeks. These witnesses come from all walks of life in Alaska and their testimony has been most interesting.

Many of the witnesses went to Alaska because of the opportunities offered in a new and undeveloped section and for the chance to grow up with the country. They are certainly to be commended for the manner in which they have taken advantage of these opportunities and made the most of them.

Several of the witnesses outlined their personal histories, and it developed that when they went to Alaska, they hardly had the price of a meal on which to start. The last witness to testify was former Governor Greuning, who was as interesting as he was able and eloquent.

The witnesses no doubt made out an excellent case for their proposal. Much politics was injected into the hearings, which I feel was definitely uncalled for.

Whether or not Alaska or Hawaii should be made states of the Union should not be considered or determined on the question of political party affiliation. Political party affiliation standing alone would not even be an excuse, much less a justification, for statehood.

The basic question is simply whether or not the best interests of the United States of America would be served by changing the territorial status of Hawaii and Alaska and creating two additional states.

It presently appears that the Alaska bill will not pass the Congress this year. The Hawaiian bill has encountered considerable opposition in the Senate. Unless this opposition can be measurably dissolved, Hawaii may find it difficult to see the passage of her bill during this year.

The public apparently thought that Senator McCarthy would have a fight on the Senate floor with someone about the Bohlen appointment. They crowded the galleries and lined up in queues from the Senate chamber to the rotunda of the Capitol waiting to get in for a short glimpse of the show, which never took place.

When Will Congress Get Through
Predictions as to the possible adjournment of Congress are beginning to crop up all over Capitol Hill. Actually, the Congress has done very little this session on legislation.

Outside the tidelands bill, the Hawaiian statehood bill, the Reorganization Plan No. 1, raising the Federal Security Agency to cabinet status, there has been very little important legislation or controversial legislation before the House.

The first of the appropriations bills is scheduled for this week. Chairman of the appropriations committee has predicted that he will have one of these appropriations bills up each week, and possibly two or three some weeks, until they are completely finished.

The appropriations bills are considered separately, that is, the appropriations for each of the several departments of government are considered separately. In view of the turn of events in Korea, it is probably safe to say that there will be the need for legislative measures that otherwise would not be necessary.

What these will be of course will depend upon the success of the truce talks and the turn of events in other sections of the world outside Korea. All in all, it seems that Congress will probably follow one of two courses. It will either recess during the summer months and come back in September or will continue in session through the summer and try for adjournment early in the fall.

The Faster Recess

As most of you know, Jean and I together with the six little Rogers' drove down to Florida during the Easter recess. We had a wonderful time and the kiddoes enjoyed it immensely. Our stay was very short as the trip down and back consumed five days. We all learned a lot, and I am sure that the children got much more out of the trip than Jean and I, for which I am duly thankful.

I discovered why the oil companies build so many different and vari-colored filling stations. It is to serve people traveling with their children. No two children ever want to stop at the same filling station, so that you can appreciate that, with six, we inspected every filling station from Washington to Daytona Beach. I got to the point where I was afraid to buy more than two gallons of gasoline at a time.

COME AS YOU ARE BREAKFAST 'GIVEN IN ROBINSON HOME

On April 22 in the home of Mrs. Rosa Robinson the Jowell Home Demonstration Club met for its "Come As You Are" breakfast.

A most enjoyable social hour was spent.

DEN 3 CUB SCOUTS REPORT

Den 3 of the Cub Scouts met in the home of Mrs. R. J. Stevens Thursday, April 23, at 4 o'clock. Roll call was answered with reports on the achievements on which Scouts were working.

Mrs. Busted, den mother, read a story to the group. Then the remainder of the afternoon was spent in practicing events for the Palava, May 16, in Amarillo.

Refreshments of pop corn balls and lemonade were served to Davis Price, Johnny Gressett, Robert Hutton, Larry Holman, Wallace Busted, Bobby Dorris, David Stevens, and Bobby Haggard.

Latest Rumors From Political Front of Nation

Republican leaders in Congress are annoyed by the prospect that three out of four of the Truman-Acheson selections for high command of military services—the biggest branch of the Government—are to keep their jobs until August 1, at least. The President seems satisfied with the way they've run the war in Korea.

It turns out that the ammunition shortage in Korea traces to a recommendation from the U. S. Joint Chiefs of Staff, headed by Gen. Omar Bradley as Chairman, that planning be based upon the assumption that the war would end by June 30, 1951. George Marshall, former Defense Secretary, accepted that view.

High-ranking commanders in U. S. Armed Forces are complaining openly that antiquated concepts of warfare now dominate U. S. war planning. The complaint is that the greatest industrial nation, in tying defense plans to the foot soldier, is sacrificing much of its advantage over nations with masses of men and weak industry.

Reports of Communist atrocities against American prisoners in Korea, made by U. S. officers, were played down and sometimes suppressed so that the American people would not be encouraged to demand a more vigorous prosecution of the war.

Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery, of Great Britain, informed guests at a dinner given by U. S. Army Staff Chief J. Lawton Collins that the U. S. would be left alone, holding the bag, if it insisted on pushing the battle line in Korea farther north. A congressman present commented that, inasmuch as the U. S. was bearing 95 per cent of the burden of Korean war, being left alone was not a new experience.

President Eisenhower is being told that there is reason to be concerned about the Republican Party's ability to preserve its thin majority in the House of Representatives when voters again go to the polls, in November, 1954. Political advisers say that the timing of tax cuts may have an important effect on the outcome, with their advice to time cuts so that they will not be forgotten by Election Day.

The speech-writing staff at the White House, in spite of much publicity, actually is not writing the top-level speeches for President Eisenhower. A New York public-relations man, called in for advice, criticized the Executive's speeches, got the job himself. Mr. Eisenhower's address on foreign policy and Treasury Secretary Geo. Humphrey's address on the business outlook are the first results.

George Humphrey, Treasury Secretary, does not like the idea of a "double" budget—one of operating expenditures and another for capital outlays—but he may be forced to consider the idea if he wishes to show what can be called a balanced budget.

Joseph Martin, Jr., Speaker of the House, is openly admitting that the excess-profits tax will die June 30 and will not be extended. Republican leaders say in private that it probably will be impossible to deny individual taxpayers some cut in taxes after mid-year.

Daniel Reed, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee that initiates all tax legislation, is letting the Republican leadership know that bills to extend Reciprocal Trade Agreements powers and many other things that the White House wants will lie in his Committee unmoved unless the Reed bill for tax reduction is permitted to reach the floor.

Robert Taft, Republican Leader in the Senate, could run into one filibuster after another. "Talkathons" loom in a number of fields ranging from tax-law changes to bills involving pruning of favorite projects.

Thomas Dewey, New York Governor, is tying his hopes for 1956 to a friendly majority and to a dominance of Dewey staff workers in the Republican National Committee. The Taft wing of the party, on its side, is heavily entrenched in Congress and in other str-
